AFFAIRS IN FRANCE.

A MOVEMENT FOR RECONCILIATION.

M. Dufaure as Mediator—The Chamber and the Budget—A Legislative Duel—France Addresses the Vatican.

THE EXPOSITION.

PARIS, December 3.—A meeting of fifteen hundred merchants and manufacturers to-day drew up an address appealing to the patriotism of President MacMahon to yield to the wishes of the majority in view of the threatened ruin of trade and in the interests of the international exhibition. A letter from Krantz chief commissioner of the exhibition, was read, denying that the exhibition would be delayed a single day, whatever might happen.

A DECISIVE STAND.

At a meeting of 120 members of the republican left wing, it was decided to refuse to vote any part of the budget until the government returned to parliamentary courses.

THE CODE.

M. M. Laisant and M. de la Rochette, members of the chamber of deputies, fought a duel to-day. The affair grew out of a publication by M. de la Rochette, of a disparaging letter in the Universe, M. de la Rochette was wounded in the thigh.

FRANCE AND THE VATICAN.

It is stated that Marquis de Banneville, minister of foreign affairs, has confidentially notified the vatican that his conduct will be guided by the best good will to the holy see, but he will not tolerate any direct interference in the internal affairs of France.

Gen. Armandeau, conservative, and M. Massot, republican, have been elected senators for the departments of Vienne and Pyrenees respectively.

ANOTHER CABINET.

The Temps says that M. Dufaure has been entrusted with the formation of a new cabinet, and went this afternoon to Versailles to consult his friends. At a meeting to-day of

and will impress upon it

THE NECESSITY OF MODERATION.

It is probable that M. Dufaure's consultation with the president led to the report of his having to say that he had been summoned to form a cabinet.

Our Washington Letter.

WASHINGTON CITY, Nov. 27, 1877.

Editors Constitution: The latest paper from your office, that has greeted our waiting eyes, has date of Nov 22d, nearly a week ago. We are all anxious—hurry up the mails. The capital question may have taken a sudden turn. A thousand new candidates may have been announced; the Georgia marshalship may have become once more formidable in political circles; in fact, we are all tip-toe with expectation and anxiety. Send the mail by some route, either north, south, east or west.

The rains descended, and the floods came, and the winds blew in this city and in Georgetown. Rock creek was higher than ever before known. The canal is seriously injured, and private losses are great. The cellars in the lower part of Washington have been heavily flooded. The fire engines were at work pumping out the water all day Monday and Tuesday. The cellar of the St. James hotel kept the engine at work continually for six hours, and the hose discharged over four hundred gallons a minute, as decided by experienced judges. The lower part of the grounds south of the white house, were all under water. The weather is unprecedented for this climate. December is nearly here, and the morning papers tell us that roses are blooming in the treasury gardens. To-morrow is thanksgiving, and you scarcely need a wrap in the open air.

The southern confirmations still hang. It is thought that there will be no difficulty when the cases are reached. The truth is, they are not allowed to come to the front. The anti-administration members contest every inch of ground.

The house met yesterday and adjourned until Friday, so there will be no holiday between the extra session and the meeting of the regular session of the 45th congress. It is now thought that there will be an intermission from about the 12th or 15th of December until the second week in January. The house has between seventeen and eighteen hundred bills now before it—and still they come. Yesterday there was a large influx of bills—many of them private bills.

Dr. Harrison will preach at Mt. Vernon on to-morrow a thanksgiving sermon. Bishop Marvin's death was a great shock—so unexpected. Rumor points to the present president of Emory college as his successor. The loss of the Huron has excited the country very much. There is blame attached to the old naval administration, the same charge of bad management and defective government ships.

Wretched Condition.

Other conditions being equal, there is no reason why a healthy man or woman should not enjoy life; and it may well be doubted whether adverse fortune has the power entirely to destroy the hap piness of one who sleeps soundly and whose digestion is good. But for the sorrowful, feeble, dyspeptic invalid there is no comfort in life. His existence is indeed a wretched one, and he should not despair of relief. That benign restorative, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, has imparted healthful vigor to many a shattered invalid. It is an unequalled remedy for broken down physiques, and for nervousness, biliousness, rheumatism, kidney complaints, constipation, and all impurities of the blood.

THE HALLS OF OUR FATHERS.

AND WHAT OUR FATHERS DID THEREIN LAST NIGHT.

The Registration Question Engages the City Seers and is Finally Swept Away, Giving a Loose Rein to the Unrolled Voter—Four New Members of the Board of Education Elected—Etc.

There were present at the regular meeting of the general council Mayor Angier and a full board.

The following was the business of the meeting:

PETITIONS

Of George Johnston for protection. Ordinance committee.

Of Sylvester Mason, retail liquor bond. Police committee.

Of James Cargile, retail liquor bond. Police committee.

Of T. Burke, retail liquor bond. Police committee.

Of Moses Calhoun for refunding of city tax overpaid. Tax committee and city attorney.

Of John O'Donnelly and others to have sidewalk near Evans' chapel put in passible condition. Street committee.

Of the Cotton States Life Insurance company for reduction of tax on city lot. Tax committee.

REPORTS.

Finance committee reported pay roll for two weeks past. It amounted to $1,883 57 and was approved.

The ordinance committee reported an ordinance strictly forbidding street drumming. It prohibits "runners" for dry goods or grocery houses when not in front of the places of business they represent.

John B Goodwin appeared as counsel for the merchants who are in favor of the passage of the ordinance.

President Griffin, of the Grocers' Protective association, spoke briefly in opposition to the ordinance. The ordinance was tabled by 8 to 5.

Street committee reported adverse on petition for crossing from Merchants' bank to restaurant opposite. Adopted.

The committee asked further time on several matters.

The police committee reported favorable on retail liquor bond of Folsom & Tye. Adopted.

Favorable on retail liquor bond of Wellborn & Woller. Adopted.

The committee on tax reported favorable opposition of Dr Joseph Thompson on refunding tax on untaxable bonds. Adopted.

The committee on relief report favorable on petition of Mrs. Anderson for free license to keep a market for public. Agreed to.

The city engineer's report was read and received.

REGISTRATION.

The opinion of the city attorney on the legality of the recent registration was read. The report declared that the registration was illegal and the proper length of time had not been given, and other irregularities had made it so defective as to fail.

On a motion to table the report the yeas and nays were called, and the yeas were four and the nays nine, so the report was not tabled.

Councilman English offered a resolution declaring all registration lists void and ordering a new registration, and that all persons qualified to vote at the general election in October, 1878, be entitled to vote at the municipal election in December, 1877.

Councilman Maher offered a resolution declaring that the registration was illegal and void, and that all persons qualified to vote at the general election in October, 1878, be entitled to vote at the municipal election in December, 1877.

This last resolution was withdrawn

ATLANTA

SUNDAY MORNING, DECEMBER 4 1877

THE LEGISLATURE.

Business before the senate is not very pressing, except the matter of consideration by the committee of the whole of the bill to amend the charter of Atlanta. Mr. Key's bill, amended yesterday, is an excellent one. It is so drawn as to not interfere with any of the provisions of the present charter, except to increase the power of the city council to borrow money. The bill, as amended, will be reported favorably by the committee, and will probably pass the senate without much opposition.

The house has been engaged all the week in considering the bill to amend the charter of Atlanta. The bill was reported favorably by the committee, with a few amendments, which were adopted. The bill, as it now stands, is a good one, and will be passed by the house. It is to be hoped that the senate will not amend it, as it will then have to go back to the house, and may be lost in the rush of business at the end of the session.

The bill to amend the charter of Atlanta, which was introduced in the house by Mr. Hillyer, of Fulton, and referred to the committee on the city of Atlanta,

THE CITY CANVASS.

A BATTLE BOUND TO BE RAISED BY A BIG INDEPENDENT TICKET.

An Attempt to Compromise and what Came of It—A Meeting that was Called "Informal," and What it Did!

About a month ago a nomination was held in Atlanta for city councilmen and an alderman. To this nomination Mr. Mitchell was nominated for alderman, and Messrs. Brotherton, Day, Goldsmith, Flynn and Crew nominated for the council.

At the time of the nomination many democrats refused to vote, saying they had determined to run an independent ticket. About one week ago

THE INDEPENDENT TICKET APPEARED.

It was as follows: Alderman—Maj W B Cox. Councilmen Boring, Hahyn, Lipes, Z A Rice and Werner.

In a few days the contest between these two tickets became very exciting, and promised to become bitterer still. A number of gentlemen who thought it would be injurious to the city that a heated contest should ensue, put a movement on foot to effect a compromise. At the request of Captain F gush and others, the candidates on both tickets met in council on yesterday. After a prolonged discussion, in which the most of the candidates joined, it was agreed that the whole matter

SHOULD BE LEFT TO ARBITRATION.

It was arranged that each ticket should select five men. The ten men thus selected should meet, and if they were unable to agree, they were empowered to elect five new men, and the fifteen thus chosen were to make final arbitration. In accordance with this agreement, the nominees selected Messrs F P Rice, C C Hammock, E P Chamberlin, J B Goodwin, and E J Roach.

The independents selected Dr Chas Pinckney, Messrs S B Hoyt, T M Clarke, R M Farrar and G Whit Anderson.

THE MEETING OF THE ARBITRATORS

took place at four o'clock in James's bank. It being discovered that Mr Clarke was absent, Dr Boring, at whose instance he was appointed, selected Mr B F Longley to take his place.

When the members were all assembled Mr Anderson arose and said he must respectfully decline to serve upon the arbitration. He said that he did not feel capable of representing his ward, even though Mr Hanye had requested him to do so. The people having chosen and taken the matter in their hands, and he proposed, as far as he was concerned, to leave it there. He could not bring himself to decide a question for his whole ward, and therefore, with all due respect to the gentlemen who were serving upon the board, he must withdraw.

Mr Hammock then moved that Mr Hoyt take the chair. Mr H. replied that the meeting was purely informal, and needed no chairman; that he supposed the friends of the nominees would probably make some proposition to the friends of the Independents upon which they would withdraw, and consult over its terms. It was hardly necessary, therefore, to have any organization.

Mr. Hammock insisted, and after it had been stated that the chairman would be allowed to vote as if he were on the floor, Judge H. took the chair.

Mr. Rice then moved that the resolution passed at the meeting of the candidates be produced.

Dr. Pinckney objected on the ground that there was a vacancy in the representation of Mr. Anderson. He yielded, however, and the resolution was produced.

It recited that the candidates had agreed upon the plan stated above, and there was a half written addition which pledged each candidate to abide the result of the arbitration.

Dr. Pinckney asked if the last read sentence was part of the agreement.

Dr. Roach, who was reading, replied that he thought it was. It appeared to have been partially written.

Dr Pinckney then asked if the agreement was signed by any one.

Dr Roach stated that it was not.

Dr Pinckney then stated that he should refuse definite upon which to act.

Mr Chamberlin here moved that Mr Grady (who was present with a pencil) be requested to notify Mr Hanye that the representative Mr Anderson, had withdrawn, and that he be asked to send some one in his place. Mr. Rice suggested that Mr. Grady notify the independent candidates of the absence of one of their delegates.

He found Messrs. Boring, Lipes and Z. A. Rice. These gentlemen appointed Mr. Chas A. Collier to carry their reply to the board. Mr. Collier stated, in behalf of the candidates named, that they did not feel justified in filling the place of Mr Hanye as representative and must decline to do so.

Dr. Pinckney then moved to adjourn, as the meeting had no definite authority for sitting—no written agreement upon which to proceed.

Mr. Goodwin moved that the four delegates of the Independent ticket present be authorized to select a man to fill Mr. Anderson's place.

The delegates declined to do this, and a demand was again made for some evidence of the authority under which the board was sitting.

Mr. Rice thereupon moved that Mr. Grady (who by this time had degenerated from a reporter to an errand boy) be requested to ask Mr James, who was present at the morning meeting, to come in and make a statement as to what had really happened.

Mr. Grady found Mr. James, who upon being acquainted with his errand said "I have no business with them, and they have none with me."

Upon this report being made Dr. Pinckney again moved to adjourn, as the meeting had no agreement upon which it could act.

Mr Rice here made a forcible appeal to the board to remain in session until the needed compromise was effected. He said he came there as a property holder, anxious to protect his property, and to subserve no clique. He had a brother-in law at the head of the nominated ticket, and was willing to take him down, if he stood in the way of a compromise. He was willing to see both tickets taken down, and a new one put up, composed of good men, who would protect the interests of the property holders. He had but one interest, and that was Atlanta's good.

Dr. Pinckney, replying, said that he had no brother-in-law on either ticket to take down or leave up, and that he moved to adjourn, because the board was unauthorized by any written or definite agreement, and it was too delicate a matter for nine men to name the rulers of a great city unless they were absolutely assured of their perfect authority to do so, and were able to produce proof of it.

Mr Hammock then appealed to the board to not dissolve itself. He said that a compromise might be affected, and that a bitter race would be injurious now. He had nothing but Atlanta's interest in the matter. He hoped the meeting would adjourn until 9 o'clock this morning.

Dr Pinckney stated that before that motion was put he must withdraw. That the meeting was informal, that it had no basis on which to act, and that it had no power to perpetuate itself by calling another meeting.

Messrs Farrar, Longley and the chairman arose and stated to leave the room with Dr Pinckney. Before leaving, the Chairman said that he would put the vote through courtesy to the gentleman making it, but that he understood it to be fully informal and binding upon no one. He put the motion, and it was carried, the five friends of the nominees voting aye, and the others refusing.

During the meeting Dr. Roach read a resolution reciting the willingness of the nominees to submit to an arbitration, and that they were anxious to effect one. The chairman refused to consider the resolution.

Upon the breaking up of the meeting the large crowd outside of the building collared the delegates eagerly, to learn the decision.

The friends of the nominees will meet this morning at nine o'clock. We have no advice as to what the friends of the independents will do.

The People's Candidate

EDITOR INDEPENDENT.—The business men of Atlanta and Fulton county desire to say, through your valuable paper, that we intend to support Mr. Robert L. Crawley for representative in the incoming general assembly. Mr. Crawley is, emphatically, one of the people, and wholly devoted to the interests of business and labor. He is the farmers' friend, the laborers' friend, the friend of the PEOPLE, and give him a grand support. What a triumph it would be to elect him unanimously—to give him every vote! Put Robert L. Crawley in the halls of state and the greatness of Georgia will be heralded from the mountains to the seaboard—from Maine to Texas, and from Oregon to Florida. As an agriculturist, as a merchant, as an orator, Robert L. Crawley stands peerless. What a pity he was not in the convention to have left the stamp of his genius along with Colonel Thompson and Gen. J. U. G. Jones. We mean BUSINESS.

—Jones, of the Macon Telegraph, has regained his temper, and we expect him to come out any day and say that he meant to do Milledgeville no harm by the publication of his war map.

—Fleming, of the Early County News, hit Milledgeville on the head with the hammer with which he struck at Atlanta. Editors should be careful that their pile drivers are aimed right before they turn them loose.

—The Macon Telegraph accuses us of making "onslaughts" on our friends lately, this is a surprising piece of information. If we have made any "onslaughts" on anybody we don't remember the occasion. On the contrary, we have been in the position of the lonely dove that sits upon the cote and coos while the roosters are engaged in shaking the feathers out of each other in the yard below. Why should Colonel Jones, who has been prominent among the roosters, shake his gory locks at the lonesome little dove?

—Grubb, of the Darien Gazette, says the prospects of the timber trade of that growing little port are better than ever.

—The Old Capital informs us that Peter O'Neal did not receive any bruises in Savannah. We have already announced this fact and have called upon the Savannah News, from which we gleaned the information, to set Colonel O'Neal right before its readers.

—Milledgeville has already prepared a marble slab upon which, in case the capital is removed, the names of the newspapers advocating her cause are to be inscribed. This will be a very graceful tribute to a number of excellent papers, but it is to be hoped that Milledgeville will not be put to the expense and trouble of erecting the memorial.

—A colored girl caught fire in Columbus the other day, and her friends scorched her bald-headed before they could extinguish the flames.

—Major G. B Devereux, a popular gentleman of Brunswick, died suddenly recently.

—John B. Gordon, colored, is in jail in Valdosta.

—Mr. John Dixon, of Wilkinson county, is building a fine house.

—Major James Pearson, of Twiggs county, died recently at the advanced age of eighty-seven.

—Hamilton Journal: We have often heard it said that kind words and "nubby" goat and gray mules never die. We are inclined to believe this to be the truth so far as the mules are concerned, for we have never seen a dead gray mule, nor have we ever seen anybody who has seen one. Mr. Floyd has a gray mule that is now thirty-eight years old, and is almost as live as ever, only one eye being dead. Now, if that mule has been thirty-eight years living one eye, how long will it take him to live over? This is an example for rest cians.

—Savannah Democrat: The editor of the Democrat was also a member of the constitutional convention, and knows that it was unanimously conceded by that body that Atlanta had acted in the utmost good faith, and Milledgeville had strong friends in the convention, yet not one of them desired to the showing made by the committee, the report of which we published on our first page. It is interesting to us that a man of Col Thompson's fiery temperament should have remained silent by, if he held the opinion he has quoted as to the Sentinel paper, the Savannah Morning News. Furthermore Hon. Miles W. Lewis and Hon. George F. Pierce, Jr., two of the ablest men in the convention, and in favor of Milledgeville, both made eloquent speeches in her behalf, but neither indulged an insinuation against the integrity of Atlanta. On the other hand, they lauded her to the skies. The fact is the partisans of Milledgeville are at "their rope's end," and they are now butting around like a blind bull.

The Lynchburg News calls for the interpretation of writing in the sky: On last Wednesday, a cloud sundown, a ball of fire, apparently about three feet in child's head, was seen sweeping through the sky in a southeasterly direction, leaving behind it a train of fire and smoke. In addition to the train of fire and smoke, we saw two letters formed in the curling, eddying smoke, the mystic letters "M. L." Who can interpret? Who read the portent?

—Alexandria (Va.) Gazette: Senator Withers, who resides in this city, was detained here yesterday morning by the storm, and was unable to get Washington by any of the usual routes. The importance of his getting there, in view of the question of the admission of Mr. Butler, of South Carolina, which was to come up in the senate, was very great, and much solicitude was felt lest he should fail. In the state of affairs Capt. Matthew Kersey, of the tugboat Belle Haven, came to the rescue, offered the use of his boat to the senator, and carried him to Washington in time for the meeting of the senate. Capt. Kersey's public spirited action is much to be commended.

—The battle of the Giants—Selma Times, November 23: The radical oligarchy in yesterday's proceedings of the senate received a severe blow from which it can not recover, and the long supremacy of the radical caucus in the senate has been broken, let us hope, for the good of the country, forever. Edmunds, the great lawyer, and, if we except Conkling, the leader of the republicans in the senate, was signally, disastrously beaten by Mr. Thurman, and after exhausting every parliamentary device and trick known to his ingenious mind. The long radical rule extending back to 1861 is broken, and the entire country is to be congratulated on the auspicious event. The battle of giants so far is in favor of the democrats.

A PROCLAMATION.

GEORGIA:

By ALFRED H. COLQUITT,

Governor of said State

EXECUTIVE DEPARTMENT, STATE OF GEORGIA,

ATLANTA, GA., November 9, 1877.

Whereas, It is provided in paragraph 2, section 4, article 7 of the Constitution, framed by the late convention of the people of this State, that "the first election for members of the General Assembly under this Constitution shall take place on the first Wednesday in December, 1877;" and

Whereas, By an ordinance adopted by said Convention, it is provided that "the Governor shall issue his proclamation ordering an election for members of the General Assembly, and a vote upon the ratification of this Constitution as therein provided, and a vote upon the Capital and Homestead questions as provided by ordinances of this Convention;" it being provided in said Constitution and ordinances, that persons voting at said election in favor of adopting the Constitution, shall write or have printed on their ballots the words, "For Ratification," and those opposed to the adoption of the Constitution shall write or have printed on their ballots the words "Against Ratification;" that those voting on the Capital question shall endorse on their ballots "Atlanta," or "Milledgeville" that those voting on the Homestead question shall write or have printed on their ballots the words "Homestead of 1877," or the words "Homestead of 1868;"

Therefore, I, Alfred H. Colquitt, Governor of said State, do by this issue this my proclamation, calling upon and requiring a sufficient number of the qualified voters of each county in this State, to assemble at the usual places of holding elections in the militia districts in said counties, on the first Wednesday in December next, then and there to cast their votes for or against the ratification of the Constitution aforesaid.

Given under my hand and the Seal of the Executive Department, at the capitol, in Atlanta, the day and year first above written.

ALFRED H. COLQUITT, Governor.

By the Governor:

J. W. WARREN,

Secretary Executive Department.

SALE OF VALUABLE REAL ESTATE, St. R R. Stock, and Bonds.

By virtue of an order from the United States District court, the trustee of the credit of W. Addy, bankrupt, will sell the following property in the city of Atlanta on the 18th day of December next or each. The sale will commence at 10 o'clock, m., in front of the M. I. Kimball House on Wall St.

1. An undivided one-fifth interest in the M. I. Kimball House and furniture.

This magnificent building fronts on Pryor 210 feet, on Decatur, 162 feet, and on Wall 168 feet.

The hotel is leased to Geo. McGinley & Co., until October 1, 1880 at $12,000 per annum. All repairs to be paid for by the tenant.

The office leases for the occupation of offices and offered cabins in 1878.

This property must be seen and examined to be appreciated, and parties who have a idea of purchasing are invited to call at G. W. Adair's office, where all desirable information can be obtained, and all investors or the agents will be shown. There books and plans can also be examined showing the rental value of the property.

2. The building on Wall street, in front of the entrance to the Union passenger depot, known as the Express building. It fronts on Wall street 50 feet with an alley of 12 feet on the west side and has three stories besides basement. The building is first-class in every particular and was constructed under the supervision of Architect Pardee. It has every modern convenience, and is of Kentucky granite and slate covered. The southern Express Company occupies the first floor by lease which expires January 1, 1880, with the privilege of renewal for five years longer at $1,200 per annum, payable quarterly. The office details a large fire and burglar proof safe built by contract for the Express company.

3. The basement facing Wall and well ventilated, has granite steps. The second and third floors contain 42 rooms furnished with mantles, grates, gas and water pipes. Everything in first-class order. The basement and two upper stories are rented to the United States government at $1,800 per annum, payable monthly. The property cost $50,000. The income at its present low rental is $3,600 per annum.

4. Adjoining the above on the east side a lot fronting 25 feet on Wall street, running back to an alley 80 feet wide, on this lot is a new, neat brick one story building, known as the railroad ticket office. One-half of the east wall of the Express building belongs to this lot.

5. What is known as the "New Greenville Mill" situated on a lot fronting on Forsyth street 95 feet having an alley on the north side, and Brotherton street on the south. The lot runs back 140 feet. The engine, boiler, machinery, etc., will be sold with the buildings.

6. The house and lot on Peters street now occupied by G. W. Adair. The lot contains six acres, all fenced and in stock lot, orchard, garden and beautiful front yard with a rubbery and shade trees. The house is one and a half stories high, and contains seven rooms, with hall, front and back veranda, fine water. It was built in 1866.

7. A plotting the above lots unimproved lots which will be more particularly described in plats. The property fronts on the street railroad and is within the corporate limits of West End.

8. Sixty-five shares of the capital stock of the Atlanta Street R. R. Co.

9. Twenty-one bonds of $1,000 each secured by deed of trust to one-third interest in the M. I. Kimball house and furniture.

WM. F. WEBB, Architect,

(Late of Baltimore, Md.)

TO THE PUBLIC

New York, October 1st, 18

I have devoted twenty years of patient study to the Liver and its relations to the human body. In search of a remedy which would restore it, when diseased, to its normal condition. The result of that labor has been the production of

TUTT'S LIVER PILLS

Their popularity has become so extended and the demand so great as to induce unscrupulous persons to counterfeit them, thereby robbing me of the reward, and the afflicted of their virtues.

TO CAUTION THE PUBLIC.

And protect them from vile impositions, I have adopted a new label, which bears my trade-mark and fac-simile of the entry in the Office of the Librarian of Congress, and my signature, thus:

Dr. H. Tutt M. D.

☞ TO COUNTERFEIT THIS IS FORGERY. ☜

Before purchasing, examine the label closely.

THE GENUINE TUTT'S PILLS

exert a peculiar influence on the system. Their action is prompt, and their good effects are felt in a few hours. A quarter of a century of study of the liver has demonstrated that it exerts a greater influence over the system than any other organ of the body, and when diseased the entire organism is deranged. It is specially for the healing of this vital organ that I have spent so many years of toil, and having found the remedy, which has proved the greatest boon ever furnished the afflicted, shall they be deprived of its benefits, and a vile imitation imposed upon them?

LET THE HONEST PEOPLE OF AMERICA SEE TO IT THAT THEY ARE NOT DEFRAUDED. Scrutinize the label closely, see that it bears all the marks above mentioned, and buy the medicine only from responsible dealers. It can be found everywhere.

Very respectfully,

W. H. TUTT.

Rowland Springs.

ROWLAND SPRINGS HYGIENIC INSTITUTE.

Open for Invalid and Hygienic Boarders.

The only Institute South superintended by a medically qualified Hygienic Physician. It is not a summer resort or the gay and fashionable world—but a place where it is sick may, at any and all times of the year, depend upon good, real and home-like surroundings. Neither is it conducted exclusively upon an idea understood by Hygienic's alone. It is an establishment proposing to cure all diseases by using exclusively such of the organic—i. e. Vegetable Kingdom, but a place where all real remedial appliances are judiciously employed to aid in restoring the lost vital forces to a healthful normal functions. All fluctuating and destructive practices as well as medical drug poisons are positively excluded in the treatment of the sick.

Patients afflicted with chronic diseases or suffering from Old Standing Chronic Complaints, of every description, may rely upon SCIENTIFIC TREATMENT and SPEEDY RESTORATION. Hundreds of invalids, after being dragged to and almost to death—any given up as incurable by the orthopathic professions—have been speedily and completely restored to health.

Home prescriptions. Many persons unable to leave family or business, can by a little knowledge and right treatment, be restored to health at home. Prescription and advice forwarded on reception of full description of symptoms and duration of disease. Prescription fee $5 00. For circulars and further information address
